SUPERVISORS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The Board of Supervisors met in regular session Monday, January 19th, there being present Wm. H. Brown presiding, Jas. T. Casey, John MacBain, J. M. Francis and D. E. Blackburn.

The minutes of the meetings held December 29 and January 5 and 12 were read and approved.

M. F. Brown, chief of the motorcycle squad reported as follows for January 5th to 18th:

Officer Lowans worked eleven days, one arrest, one conviction, fine $5.

Officer Logan worked eleven days one arrest, one conviction, fine $10.

Officer Vallejo, no report.

Officer Brown worked fourteen days, no arrests.

A communication was received from the Grand Jury notifying the board that the jury had by unanimous vote decided to make no recommendations in the controversy between the Supervisors and the A. L. Young Machinery Company regarding certain culvert pipe delivered to the Fifth road district.

The communication was accepted on motion of Blackburn, seconded by MacBain, and ordered filed.

Mrs. C. G. Harris of Redwood City petitioned the board for State aid for the support of her three half-orphan children.

On motion of MacBain, seconded Francis, the petition was granted, and each of said children will be allowed $6.25 per month.

Frank Andrews and Thomas Cardozo notified the board in a joint communication that all claims held by them against T. K. Beard, the builder of the San Francisco bridge, had been settled, they therefore withdrew the notice previously given the board respecting Beard's claim against the county.

Edward D. Swift of Belmont sent a communication in which the board was assured that the movement to have a road opened on the west side of the railroad right of way from Beresford to Redwood City was not a secret one but had been openly advocated by many Belmont citizens for the past twenty years as a public necessity.

Coroner H. G. Plymire reported that there had come into his possession money, the effects of certain deceased persons, amounting to $365.50, which had been turned over to relatives.

In accordance with the Auditor's advice the following transfers of county funds were made:

On motion of Blackburn, seconded by MacBain, $3719.70 were transferred from the General to the County Advertising fund.

On motion of Blackburn, seconded by MacBain, $2000 were transferred from the Advertising fund to the County Development fund.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Blackburn $334.45 were transferred from the Development fund to the General fund.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Blackburn, it was ordered that the Grand Jury's report be read to the board before adjournment.

District Attorney Swart stated that the business of his office was increasing in such proportions that he was unable to keep up with it. He would like to give the board's affairs more attention, particularly the acquiring of rights of way for the new county roads, but was unable to do so without assistance.

Mr. Swart asked that he be given an assistant whose salary shall not exceed $100 each month.

It was ordered, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Blackburn that such assistant counsel be secured.

for the District Attorney, who will recommend a suitable attorney. A report was received, signed by the Treasurer, Auditor and Chairman, notifying the board that the rate of interest to be charged for county funds deposited in banks was fixed at 2 per cent per annum. The report was accepted on motion of Blackburn, seconded by Brown.

It was ordered, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, that the bridge at Baden, erected by C. J. Lindgren, be accepted.

An agreement was received from the Ocean Shore Railroad Company, specifying the terms by which an overgrade crossing might be erected across the company's right of way at Thornton.

The agreement being satisfactory, was accepted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, and it was ordered that the Railroad Commission be asked to grant the board permission to construct the crossing.

It was ordered, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, that the County Surveyor be authorized to enter into an agreement with Needham for a right of way for the county road near Montara at a cost of $350.

A petition signed by T. E. Roe, John Kinnear and others, was received, asking that the board appoint viewers to view and lay out the new section of county road in the Fourth district through the lands of the California Novelty and Investment Company.

The petition was accepted on motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain, and the Surveyor and William Deeney and John Kinnear were appointed to serve as viewers of the proposed road.

A reading of the Grand Jury's report was carefully listened to by the board and many of its suggestions were given the hearty approval of the members.

Adjourned to Monday, January 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanson, who have passed the winter at the St. Francis, expect to return to their home here the 1st of February.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

The expert of the recent Grand Jury paid the following compliment to Recorder H. O. Heiner: "I find the Recorder's office well arranged, and his work turned out promptly. He seems to have sufficient help. His office is conducted in a business like manner."

Mr. Heiner has merited this praise from the expert for the Recorder's office is conducted strictly on business principles. Those having business with the recorder speak flatly of his courtesy, capability and his willingness at all times to oblige them. His corps of assistants are both courteous and obliging. Mr. Heiner has made a splendid official and is commended by all.

Auditor W. H. Underhill has held up all the claims of the late Grand Jury presented by the members of that body and others who rendered services at the instance of the foreman. The expert's claim was no exception. Mr. Underhill holds that the Grand Jury is an illegal body and as such is not entitled to pay, and its acts null and void. The auditor has held this opinion from the time the Grand Jury was organized. Perhaps this is the motive that caused the members to bring the accusation against Mr. Underhill. We believe the inquisitorial body was rather severe on Mr. Underhill. If his books were not kept up to date, as charged, the matter of Mr. Underhill's sickness should have been taken into consideration. He has been ill for the past three months, a portion of that time being confined to a hospital. The legal status of the Grand Jury will be established when Mr. Underhill receives an opinion from the Attorney General, and that is expected to be received in a few days.

The late Grand Jury in its report pays the following well deserved praise to A. McSweeney, the popular tax collector. Mr. McSweeney is a very efficient official.

This office has been investigated, and accounts checked, and I find that the total taxes charged to the tax collector for the year 1913 and 1914 was $569,594.25. The total taxes collected by the tax collector and deposited with the treasurer was $360,300.60. Remaining uncollected $209,293.65.

The above balance is segregated as follows:
Unpaid first installment, $14,375.65
Unpaid second installment, $194,918.00
This office, I have found, is carefully arranged and cared for.

During my investigation of last year I made suggestions in reference to the care and collections and payments during the rush period, and I find upon entering the office this year that these suggestions have been carried out, and now I feel that this office is well protected and arranged so that the full amount of service can be derived.

We also recommend that the tax collector get assistants at $15.00, and stenographer at $9.00.

AND THE GOOD WORK GOES ON.

Reports from registration offices of seventeen of the larger cities of the State indicate that before the first month of registration has passed, Republican registration in the large centers of population will exceed the combined registration of Democrats and Progressives.

The middle of this month found the total figures from seventeen cities as follows: Republicans, 25,844; Progressives, 17,068; Democrats, 11,644. At that time the Republican registration was but 2,864 short of equalling the combined Progressive and Democratic registration and reports were generally to the effect that the Republican gain was steady, even in Alameda county, the stronghold of the Bull Moose.

The Los Angeles figures for the first half month of registration upset all political calculations. At that time Republican registration was already in excess of the combined Progressive and Democratic registration. The figures were: Republican, 8,962; Progressive, 4,673; Democratic, 4,080.

The Democrats are leading the Progressives in San Diego county, with Republicans in advance by thousands. Thirty-two hundred fifty-four Republicans had registered, against 699 Progressives and 1314 Democrats.

The figures in San Jose were: Republican, 1168; Progressive, 543; Democratic, 464. Stockton showed Republican registration far in the lead with 803 registrations against 191 Progressive and 568 Democratic registration. Only 50 voters had registered as Progressives at Hanford, while 131 registered as Republican, and 70 as Democratic.

Card Party at Woman's Club. The choral section of the Redwood City Woman's club will give a card party at the club house next Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Bridge and five hundred will be played. Six original and unique prizes will be given to those who are fortunate enough to score highest. Judging from the number of tables that are being reserved there will be a large attendance. Refreshments will be served. Admission 25 cents.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. Notice is hereby given that the partnership formerly existing between James William, Wm. Hammond Jr., Charles Keith and A. N. Foster has been dissolved.

"NOW THE LITTLE BUSY BEE."

Already the political bee is beginning to buzz around and while he isn't gathering any honey as yet, he will soon begin to dispense some of the social whirl will soon be on in earnest, with candidate's balls and coming out parties. So far as the incumbents in county office are concerned, they are all standing pat and looking wise and saying nothing.

Judge Buck will probably make the race all by himself. He will be in the independent column of the ticket and as yet no one has appeared to give him battle. Sheriff Mansfield has a number of opponents for his position. Probation Officer M. S. Sheehan of San Mateo, who has made good in his present position, has announced to his Republican friends that he would like their endorsement. Robert S. Chatham of this city is also spreading the same information to his friends. Bob made an efficient officer and will run on the merits of his former service. It is also rumored that Supervisor W. H. Brown would like to be sheriff, but we rather believe that his hat is again in the ring for supervisor of the Second township.

Assessor C. D. Hayward will have Mr. W. G. Swin in Lomita Park as an opponent. Clarence is not losing much sleep over the election as he counts practically everyone in the county as his friend.

For Auditor the following named gentlemen have announced that their friends are urging them to run for the office: W. H. Underhill, the incumbent, P. H. McEvoy of Menlo Park, Deputy Sheriff J. J. Shields of Redwood City, Charles Mason of San Mateo and George Breaux of Elston.

It is rumored that Will Barg will run against J. H. Nash for County Clerk, also that Surveyor James V. Neuman will have as an opponent City Engineer Knese of South San Francisco. District Attorney Franklin Swart will probably have Kenneth M. Green as an opponent.

As yet no candidates have appeared against Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud, Tax Collector A. McSweeney, Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain and Public Administrator H. G. Plymire.

Communicated.

Editor Times-Gazette: May I use a little of your space to soothe the feelings of "An Irishman" who directs the shafts of his artistic vituperation at me in your late issue? This nettled patriot base is his poor opinion of me upon a very slight acquaintance, judging from the way he wholly misinterprets the spirit of the item quoted.

The first mistake your correspondent makes is in getting so far away from his base of operations. The pleasantry at the expense of the strong Hibernian color at a proposed Democratic love feast, was too local in its application to have the point understood in an adjoining county. Some of the names used were purposely fictitious and not Irish at all, as everybody here would readily know from the way they were earmarked and printed.

There is nothing so flat as the joke that has to be explained. I shall not attempt it. I certainly regret however, that anyone should so far mistake me as to suppose that I am given to a peculiar and unfailing brand of bigotry and racial hatred. No one who had the slightest knowledge of the facts would make such a charge. I can refer to you our popular Franklin Swart who knows that I am a perfectly harmless old bonehead who would not intentionally offend anyone—much less my good friends among the Irish.

Since your correspondent has mentioned the matter of deriving names, I will state that my own is followed back by the genealogists in this fashion: Simpkins, Simpson, Simonson, Simon's son, Simon, Simon-Peter, St. Peter, who was first Bishop of Rome and who now holds the Keys of Heaven. Such a lineage as that ought to oblige me from suspicion that I am derived from Simple Simon, the pie-man from the pages of Mother Goose.

I have a partner in business who is both an Irishman and a Democrat and my little jokes at his expense ought to travel so far from home. Although of English extraction I am a partisan and admirer of the Irish nation, and I think it fortunate that free America has inherited so large a share of the spirit and heroism of the Emerald Isle. If this agitated Irishman would cultivate his native born sense of humor he and I would get along together splendidly. H. W. SIMPKINS, Palo Alto, Cal., Jan. 20, 1914.

Live Oaks in Danger.

We have exhibited in our office a branch of live oak thoroughly infested with the oak catipillar (Phryganidia californica) which defoliated many of the oak trees last year.

This species is limited to the oak along the peninsula and bay counties and is seldom found in the interior. It appeared in various sections last year in enormous numbers denuding and permanently injuring many of them, some have failed to recover from this pest.

We are indebted to Prof. T. N. Shinn, the noted tree doctor, who is surprised at the early pronounced appearance of this menace.

If the trees are kept in a healthy vigorous condition they resist these adverse influences, their appearance is vastly improved and their longevity insured.

This work, spraying, pruning, etc. should be done by competent workmen who understand the physiology of tree life.

You better not monkey with a fire hydrant after this—unless you happen to be a member of the fire department—unless you have secured a permit from City Clerk Plump and left a deposit of two good "plunks" with him to secure the return of a wrench which he will loan you, or you may have a chance to figure as one of the chief actors in a seance with Judge Hannon. CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

The expert of the recent Grand Jury paid the following compliment to Recorder H. O. Heiner:

"I find the Recorder's office well arranged, and his work turned out promptly. He seems to have conducted in a business like manner." Mr. Heiner has merited this praise from the expert for the Recorder's office is conducted strictly on business principles. Those having business with the recorder speak flatteringly of his courtesy, capability and his willingness at all times to oblige them. His corps of assistants are both courteous and obliging. Mr. Heiner has made a splendid official and is commended by all.

Auditor W. H. Underhill has held up all the claims of the late Grand Jury presented by the members of that body and others who rendered services at the instance of the foreman. The expert's claim was no exception. Mr. Underhill holds that the Grand Jury is an illegal body and as such is not entitled to pay, and its acts null and void. The auditor has held this opinion from the time the Grand Jury was organized. Perhaps this is the motive that caused the members to bring the accusation against Mr. Underhill. We believe the inquisitorial body was rather severe on Mr. Underhill. If his books were not kept up to date, as charged, the matter of Mr. Underhill's sickness should have been taken into consideration. He has been ill for the past three months, a portion of that time being confined to a hospital. The legal status of the Grand Jury will be established when Mr. Underhill receives an opinion from the Attorney General, and that is expected to be received in a few days.

The late Grand Jury in its report pays the following well deserved praise to A. McSweney, the popular tax collector. Mr. McSweney is a very efficient official.

This office has been investigated, and accounts checked, and I find that the total taxes charged to the tax collector for the year 1913 and 1914 was $569,594.25. The total taxes collected by the tax collector and deposited with the treasurer was $360,300.60. Remaining uncollected $209,293.65.

The above balance is segregated as follows:
Unpaid second installment, $194,918.00

This office, I have found, is carefully arranged and cared for. During my investigation of last year I made suggestions in reference to the care and collections and payments during the rush period, and I find upon entering the office this year that these suggestions have been carried out, and now I feel that this office is well protected and arranged so that the full amount of service can be derived.

AND THE GOOD WORK GOES ON.

Reports from registration offices of seventeen of the larger cities of the state indicate that before the first month of registration has passed, Republican registration in the large centers of population will exceed the combined registration of Democrats and Progressives.

The middle of this month found the total figures from seventeen cities as follows: Republicans, 25,844; Progressive, 17,068; Democratic, 11,640. At that time the Republican registration was but 2,864 short of equalling the combined Progressive and Democratic registration and records were generally to the effect that the Republican gain was steady, even in Alameda county, the stronghold of the Bull Moose.

The Los Angeles figures for the first half month of registration upset all political calculations. At that time Republican registration was already in excess of the combined Progressive and Democratic registration. The figures were: Republican, 8,962; Progressive, 4,673; Democratic, 4,080.

The Democrats are leading the Progressives in San Diego county, with Republicans in advance by thousands. Thirty-two hundred fifty-four Republicans had registered, against 699 Progressives and 1314 Democrats.

The figures in San Jose were: Republican, 1168; Progressive, 543; Democratic, 464. Stockton showed Republican registration far in the lead with 803 registrations against 191 Progressive and 568 Democratic registration. Only 50 voters had registered as Progressives at Hanford, while 181 registered as Republican, and 70 as Democratic.

"HOW THE LITTLE BUSY BEE."

Already the political bee is beginning to buzz around while he isn't gathering any honey as yet, he will soon begin to dispense some of the social whirl will soon be on in earnest, with candidate's balls and coming out parties. So far as the incumbents in county office are concerned, they are all standing.

Live Oaks in Danger.

We have exhibited in our office a branch of live oak thoroughly infested with the oak catpillar (Phryganidia californica) which defoliated many of the oak trees last year.

This species is limited to the oak along the peninsula and bay counties and is seldom found in the interior. It appeared in various sections last year in enormous numbers denuding and permanently injuring many of them, some have failed to recover from this pest.

We are indebted to Prof. T. N. Shinn, the noted tree doctor, who is surprised at the early pronounced appearance of this menace.

If the trees are kept in a healthy vigorous condition they resist these adverse influences, their appearance is vastly improved and their longevity insured.

ANOTHER COUNTY PIONEER CROSSES THE GREAT DIVIDE

The last sad rites over the remains of George West were held in Foresters hall under the auspices of Metamora Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the deceased had crowded the hall long before that hour and when the casket arrived there was scarcely standing room. The beautiful burial ceremony of that society was read by Grand Sachem H. Fulkner and Harry Jamison. At the conclusion of which Rev. David M. Crabtree, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, began the religious service, prefacing the prayers by a beautiful tribute to the life of the deceased. The reverend gentleman spoke feelingly of the sweet disposition of the deceased and his charity towards all mankind. The loving tribute found a response in the hearts of all who listened to the final words of commendation. The remains were then borne by kind friends to Union cemetery where they were consigned to their last resting place. The pall bearers were, Henry Kreiss, Jens Hanson, Leo Pihlin, Charles Lockyer, James Coleman and J. N. Winter. Since the death of an only son some four years ago, Mr. West has not been himself. He brooded over the death of his boy and at times he became despondent. It is known that he had been in a melancholy mood for the past two weeks. However it is the general opinion of those who knew him well that he did not commit suicide. The circumstances surrounding his death would also point to this conclusion. That his death was accidental there can be but little doubt. The theory that he was robbed is scouted by everyone. All the evidences surrounding the death of deceased was presented to the coroner's jury on Wednesday and that body brought in a verdict of accidental death.

The deceased was held in high esteem by his friends throughout the county and his sudden demise has been a severe shock to his many friends. Late Tuesday night he left his home and went to his office in the building on Washington street, where he maintained a storeroom and rented rooms. Shots were heard at different times through the night by roomers in the building, but no attention was paid to them. At 8 o'clock yesterday morning Frank Austin, one of the tenants, asked some friends to assist him in investigating the matter, and following a trail of blood, they found the dead body of West lying fully dressed on a bed in one of the rooms, with a revolver still grasped in his hand. The bloody trail led from the office, where the shooting took place, to a room in the third story of the building, and indicated that after West had shot himself, he had walked up two flights of stairs to the bed and lay himself down to die. The sheriff and deputy coroner were summoned and the body taken to the morgue, where upon examination, a bullet wound was found in the left thigh, severing the main artery and causing death from loss of blood.

George West was born in Michigan and was 66 years of age. He was a well known person in this city and also in San Mateo where he was often employed in various capacities. He was an agreeable companion, had many friends and was without an enemy, for his impulsive nature and jovial disposition prevented anyone from holding animosity toward him.

For several years Mr. West had, at times, suffered from attacks of rheumatism and during these attacks was disabled for weeks at a time, but he always bore up with a smile even when in excruciating pain.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to his aged wife who is also an invalid and the only surviving mourner, their only child, a son, having died four years ago.

HIGH SCHOOL GRAD WRITES OF PHILIPPINE CONDITIONS

Elmer L. La Dieu, a graduate of the local high school, and now connected with a government surveying party in the Philippines, gives us views of the natives. He writes from Pampanga, as follows:

"During my stay in the Philippines I have spent several months in some of the provinces or states of the island of Luzon. I also traveled for a short time in the islands of Mindanao, and Cebu. In these three places I have made a deep study of the people. The natives of the different provinces are divided into distinct classes or nations. In the province of Rizal the people are, as a general rule, with the exception of Manila, Tagalogs and Spaniards. In Balcan the Tagalogs and Pampangians, mixed here and there, with the Igorotes. In Pampanga the Pampangians and Negritos.

The Spanish element does not need description here. They are as a rule, the higher and wealthier class. The Tagalogs and Pampangians are a race of Malay descent mixed with Spanish. They are of medium stature, ranging from five feet to five feet, seven inches in height, and are never heavily built, although they are very strong and tough.

The Negritos of the Pampangian province are of a very small size, rarely being more than four feet in height. They are about the lowest degree of civilization and are so dirty and filthy that their bodies are covered with a scale. They belong to a fierce old head hunting tribe of mountain people.

A few miles from Angeles where they have not been touched by civilization, they are dangerous for a Caucasian to go among in small parties. The people of the province, excepting the Negritos, and Igorotes, are very much alike. They are all of bright colors. The men of the business class dress in white duck, or kahaki. Those of the lower class wear clothes made from flour sacks, or cast-off garments of the soldiers or white civilians. The use of shoes or underclothing is totally unknown among them although at their fiestas, they wear wooden sandals, or carpet slippers with caribon-hid-soles, which emit an odor that one can smell a half a mile off.

The women wear bright variegated red, blue, or green calicos. Their arms and shoulders are covered with a bell shaped construction of cloth which is like the mosquito bar of the States.

The Negritos and Igorotes, men and women, wear no clothing at all, except when coming from the hills in the large native parties (cetes). Then they wear a cloth, or a bunch of grass or leaves wound around their loins. These garments, if they may be called such, are named "gec string."

The home life is very crude. The walls and roofs of the houses are built of bamboo covered with Nipa or Cogan grass. The floors are made of split bamboo laid about a half inch apart. The beds, if they have any, are constructed the same as the floor, covered with a piece of matting with a round piece of wood about four inches in diameter, which is used as a pillow. The food consists of rice, fish with pork and chicken for fiesta days. It is cooked over an open fire, and held in an earthen dish.

The morals of the people are very low, naturally. They will lie rather than tell the truth; steal anything they can get hold of, especially the Pampangians, and if punished by the military authorities, who are the only ones to enforce law and order, think it terrible.

Marriage is a thing seldom practiced among them. They live together in harmony, and call it matrimony, which, in fact means, when they tire of each other, they separate and pair off with someone else they like better.

Carrie E. Gillespie vs. W. W. Gillespie. Order to show cause entered. Continued to Feb. 17.

Demurrer Overruled

Judge Sargent has overruled the demurrer in the case of the People of the State of California against the Spring Valley Water Company so that the case will soon go to trial. Some time ago District Attorney Franklin Swart filed a complaint against the company asking the court to direct it to remove the flumes on the highway in San Bruno and South San Francisco. The company demurred to the complaint, contending that the county had no authority to compel it to remove the flumes in view of the fact that it had a franchise through the First township to lay its pipes. Mr. Swart held that the county had the right and his contention was upheld by Judge Sargent, at least the court pronounced the complaint a true and valid one. The company will soon file its answer and the case will shortly go to trial.

RUN-DOWN WOMEN

Find Health in a Simple Tonic.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well, strong and healthy as a woman should be? They may not be sick enough to lie in bed—but they are run-down, thin, nervous, tired and demoralized.

Women are so active nowadays, and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headache, backache, nervousness and kindred ills.

Such women need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Mrs. Walter Price, Bilcoi, Miss., says: "I was in a run-down condition for months. I had taken several medicines but they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I began to improve until I am strong and well as ever."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

P. S.—For pimples and blotches try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.
